St. James's, April 2.

THE following Addreſs has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Baltimore, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Hamilton and Brandon Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Governour, and the Upper and Lower Houſes of Aſſembly in the Province of Maryland.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Governour, and the Upper and Lower Houſes of Aſſembly in Maryland, now convened, beg Leave to expreſs the deep Senſe we have of our great Loſs by the Death of your Royal Father King George the Firſt, of bleſſed Memory; a Prince of moſt heroick and ineſtimable Virtues, under whoſe Adminiſtration our pure and holy Religion was ſupported and piouſly propagated, our Laws, Liberties and Properties maintain'd and ſtrenuouſly defended, and all other Bleſſings that a free People could expect from the beſt of Kings, diſpenſed among us; the Reflexion of his Death makes us juſtly lament our mighty Loſs, and humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the Tribute of our Tears due to our late moſt gracious Sovereign; and after having paid this Duty to his glorious Memory, joyfully to offer our moſt ſincere Congratulations for your Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Throne of your Royal Anceſtors, and to aſſure your Majeſty, that we have not the leaſt Reaſon to doubt our being equally happy under your Majeſty's Government, the Virtues of your great and Royal Father being inherent in your Majeſty. And we moſt earneſtly beſeech your Majeſty to believe, altho' at this Diſtance from your Royal Preſence, none of your Majeſty's Subjects can have a more awful and juſt Regard for your Majeſty, than the People of this Province. And we devoutly pray, that the Great and Divine Being will ſhower down Bleſſings on your Majeſty, your moſt pious and illuſtrious Conſort, and your Royal Progeny, to be a Bleſſing to your Kingdoms till Time ſhall be no more.

This our Condoleance for our late moſt gracious Sovereign, our Congratulations for your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion, and our fervent Prayers for the Succeſſion in your illuſtrious Line, we moſt humbly implore your Majeſty to accept from the Hands of our noble Lord Proprietary, whoſe Attachment to your Royal Perſon, Crown and Government, we preſume is well known to your Majeſty. We are, May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt loyal, dutiful and obedient Subjects and Servants.
